

Tom Kmiec is the Member of Parliament for Calgary Shepard currently serving his first term on behalf of his constituents. He is the current Deputy Shadow Minister for Finance and is a member of the Standing Committee on Finance. He is a former member of the Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs and International Development as well as the past deputy critic on foreign affairs for the conservatives.

Tom Kmiec was born in Poland and raised in Quebec, where he graduated from the Université de Concordia with a Bachelor degree in Political Science. He has a Master's degree from Regent University, Virginia, USA, in American Government.

Prior to being elected, he was the registrar for the human resources profession in the province of Alberta. He is also a past manager of policy and research with the Calgary Chamber of Commerce and has worked for federal and provincial ministers. Tom is a past board member with the Kidney Foundation of Canada's southern Alberta chapter and a 2-time Kidney Marcher.

Tom is married to Evangeline and they have three kids, Maximillian, Jolie and Enoch.